

DANIEL V. BEHESNILIAN

NBC Los Angeles - New Details Emerge in Glendale Murder

Los Angeles Times - Ak Mak heiress accused of killing man

Glendale News Press -Heiress of 'Original Armenian □Cracker Bread' bakery pleads not guilty to murder

Daniel Behesnilian has been practicing law since 1977 and established The Law Offices of Daniel V. Behesnilian in 1989. His firm operates with an efficient and devoted staff, which insures that every client receives the optimal degree of attention and respect that is deserved. Daniel and his staff take pride in their work and have established a respectable reputation for personalized service, hands-on commitment and a proactive approach to serving the needs of the client. Daniel spent his early life in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, and developed an interest in law at an early age. After moving to the United States in 1970, Daniel pursued his undergraduate studies at the University of California-Los Angeles. He graduated in 1974 and continued his education at Loyola Marymount University School of Law in Los Angeles, where he completed his Juris Doctorate studies in 1977. Showing signs of a promising attorney, Daniel went on to begin his career with Keosian & Keosian Law Offices where he spent the next seven years building his reputation as a passionate and competent litigator. In the late 1980s, driven by an entrepreneurial spirit, Daniel began his own law practice in Beverly Hills in order to better serve his clients. Presently, his office handles a wide array of cases including but not limited to criminal law, personal injury, civil litigation and employment law.

Daniel's reputation as a respected attorney is both nationally and internationally recognized. He speaks multiple languages including English, Armenian and French. Currently, Daniel is retaining counsel for the Royal Consulate of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia as well as the Consulate of the State of Kuwait.

In addition to his successful career as an attorney, Daniel is also a devoted father of two boys. He enjoys spending time with his family and traveling.