

MARINE SAKAIAN

Originally from Armenia, Marine moved to the United States in 1980. She graduated from Grant High School and continued her education at Valley College where she earned her certification as an Occupational Legal Secretary. Marine began her career in the legal field as receptionist and later gained valuable professional experience in office management and pre-litigation. In addition to overseeing office operations at the Law Offices of Daniel V. Behesnilian, Marine assists in the litigation department and has been part of the Daniel's team since 1998. Fluent in both English and Armenian, her caring and compassionate nature in addition to her exceptional interpersonal skills help to build lasting relationships with clients during the litigation process. Marine is also happily married with two children.
